Amos Cochran
(Arkansas, 1984)

color Field Outside / In, 2019

Soundscape; 24 minutes 47 seconds
Location: Wilhelmina’s Grove

Fun Facts
- Amos Cochran is an Emmy nominated composer, musician and sound artist.
- He composed music for Dayveon on Netflix.
- He likes to fly kites, jump on trampolines and write music.
- Cochran has composed pieces for documentaries, commercials and trailers, as well as his own albums.
- Cochran’s inspiration came from William Eggleston’s photograph, the Color Field painting movement and the Ozark forests of his home state Arkansas.

Activities
- Meet Amos Cochran | “Color Talks”
- Watch a Modern Procedure for Breathing.
- Live Performance of Gideon’s Lullaby.
- Experience Cochran’s Memory Dissolve at Bastion Gallery.

Stay Connected. @PublicArtUHS
#ColorFieldUH #ArtIsAllAroundUs

The exhibition is organized by Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, Bentonville, Arkansas for Public Art UHS with significant enhancements, interpretative content, and an exclusive digital experience created by Public Art UHS and the University of Houston. The Houston presentation of the exhibition is generously supported by The Brown Foundation, Inc.